

You're Invited

Janet McLean and the Māori Health Team would like to invite you to the next Māori Health Excellence Seminar focused on:

Improving Diabetes Screening

Presenters include:

Dr Brandon Orr-Walker, Ministry of Health diabetes champion. Dr Orr-Walker will summarise some of the most effective strategies from around the country which have helped improve screening and management.

Jennifer Bailey, Ministry of Health senior advisor. Jennifer will summarise the way diabetes prevalence is calculated, planned changes to this process, and how these will impact on the predicted numbers of diabetics in general practices in BOPDHB.

Sarah Tibby, Long Term Conditions Manager, Counties-Manukau DHB. Counties leads the health target table for diabetes screening among Māori and Pacific peoples. Sarah will discuss the strategies which have taken Counties to the top.

Dr Shane Cross, GP, Northland. Dr Cross has been one of the key people who have helped Northland become the third highest DHB in the country for screening its Māori population. Dr Cross will discuss the strategies implemented at general practice level to improve diabetes screening and management.

Presentations will be followed by an open panel discussion.

By the end of this seminar you'll know some of the most effective strategies from around the country to improve diabetes screening.
