INTRODUCTION
Post-mortem examinations may be required under the Coroner’s Act or may be requested by the clinician responsible for the care and treatment.

CORONIAL AUTOPSY
Informed consent is not required for a Coronial Autopsy

NON-CORONIAL AUTOPSY
1. It is necessary that requests for non-coronal post-mortem examination comes from the doctor(s) directly involved in the care of the patient and that they be made by direct discussion with the family. The Pathologist, as the person doing the procedure, must also contact the family and discuss the procedure prior to consent being given.
2. Only with the informed consent of the family may an autopsy proceed.
3. Telephone discussion and requests are acceptable if family is not present. Non-Coronal Consent for Autopsy Form must be completed.
4. It is recommended that the doctor directly involved in the case and / or the Pathologist who performs the autopsy discusses the findings with the family, both at the preliminary stage, and at the final report stage.
